About the Coach

Dr. Joe Bohn has guided over 22 doctoral students (2017-2025) in successfully planning, managing, and completing their dissertations. Serving as chair, co-chair and committee member his approach stands out due to: a) active listening, b) aligning student interests with topic selection, c) ensuring adherence to program guidelines, d) priority setting, e) framework visualization, and f) thematic analysis of literature and qualitative data assessment.

Framework for Success: LIFE

Over nine years in academia serving as Deputy Director of a DrPH Program (3 years) and Director of Community Engagement (7 years) at a state public health college. Doctoral students were treated as peers respected for their professional experiences while providing expert guidance. The LIFE framework is about understanding the student's topic interest; setting research questions, aims and objectives; guiding literature reviews and data collection; and ensuring dissertation requirements are met.

Testimonials

"Working with Dr. Bohn during my doctoral journey was truly transformative. His guidance helped me navigate the challenges of my doctoral project writing, time management, and staying motivated. I highly recommend his coaching to any doctoral student looking for structured support and mentorship."

"Dr. Bohn was instrumental in enabling me to successfully complete my doctoral coursework, dissertation, and graduating. After graduating, Dr. Bohn encouraged me to publish my research which is now done with a podcast. Dr. Bohn's guidance is truly invaluable!"

"Dr. Bohn believed in my study before I did. He saw my vision and provided unwavering support for my research. His dedication and depth of knowledge set him apart, and I knew I had to work with him."
